The Center for Photographic Art (CPA) is excited for the 2024 Members' Juried Exhibition! See below for a list of the chosen artists from over 2,600 entries, congratulations to all!

Juror:

Catherine Couturier is the owner and director of Catherine Couturier Gallery. Upon its inception, the gallery quickly evolved into the premier photography gallery in Houston and sits at the center of Gallery Row. Couturier has worked in the fine art photography world since 1999 and is involved in many different aspects. She reviews portfolios for organizations and festivals such as Fotofest, Photo Nola, Texas Photographic Society, and more, works with private organizations to review fine art photography including classes both public and private, builds and curates collections both private and corporate, worked as an art consultant on a nationwide healthcare project, is a juror for Critical Mass, serves on the advisory council of Houston Center for Photography, and give lectures to artists and collectors alike on a myriad of subjects. She is incredibly proud to be on the board of Aipad (Association of Photography Art Dealers), the most prestigious institute of its kind in the world. Catherine Couturier Gallery specializes in classic 20th century photography and contemporary work of the highest quality and also sells a wide range of rare and vintage books and publications by many of today's best-known contemporary artists. The Catherine Couturier Gallery is committed to excellence with a dedication to the NEED HELP? > its forms, with the goal to showcase the best fine art photography available.
